§ 1.78 Claiming benefit of earlier filing date and cross-references to other applications.

- (a) Claims under 35 U.S.C. 119(e) for the benefit of a prior-filed provisional application. An applicant in a nonprovisional application, other than for a design patent, or an international application designating the United States of America may claim the benefit of one or more prior-filed provisional applications under the conditions set forth in 35 U.S.C. 119(e) and this section.
- (1) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, the nonprovisional application or international application designating the United States of America must be filed not later than twelve months after the date on which the provisional application was filed, or be entitled to claim the benefit under 35 U.S.C. 120, 121, or 365(c) of an application that was filed not later than twelve months after the date on which the provisional application was filed. This twelve-month period is subject to 35 U.S.C. 21(b) (and §1.7(a)) and PCT Rule 80.5.
- (2) Each prior-filed provisional application must name the inventor or a joint inventor named in the later-filed application as the inventor or a joint inventor. In addition, each prior-filed provisional application must be entitled to a filing date as set forth in $1.53(c), and the basic filing fee set forth in $1.16(d) must have been paid for such provisional application within the time period set forth in $1.53(g).
- (3) Any nonprovisional application or international application designating the United States of America that claims the benefit of one or more priorfiled provisional applications must contain, or be amended to contain, a reference to each such prior-filed provisional application, identifying it by the
